LEIGH-COULTER-ROLLER LUCK.

Farmer Eugene Leigh, Epicure Coulter, and Capt. Roller had a good time with the Ingalls' Park bookmakers yesterday. From their stables three horses scored and Roller's boy, Clay, won the mile race on Percy.

Leigh started the ball rolling in the first race. He had in his good filly Hardly and she was sometimes as good as 6 to 5, but at the last minute was almost backed off the boards. Thompson got her off good and going right on about his business beat The Cheat with a bit to spare.

Coulter followed this up with Redskin, and to show what a good fellow he was landed the maiden two-year-old race with his Deceiver—Ida Walton colt, Trickster. Redskin's price was always about 3 to 5. It was a royal price too, and Redskin leading his field from start to finish won, pulled up from Indra. Redskin is a real hot horse right now and when he runs a true race there is hardly one at the track that can beat him.

With "velvet" in stock the trio thought fit to unload on Trickster, which they did at 7 to 10 and less. He got off well and led all the way. He was hard pressed on the end by Mr. Eastin. Mc Hugh rode a strong race on the winner. The colt wanted to stop badly at the sixteenth pole.

So far all Roller had been doing was to bet the money, but now came his chance to perform. Clay had the mount on Percy and Peter is real good himself nowadays. So Peter was backed after a conference by the trio. Incidentally Percy was included at 3 to 1. The imported horse was at his best and going to the front early, won as he pleased.

Admetus seemed in a soft spot in the last race and the public played him at 6 to 5 and even money, but the best he could do was third, Olivia L winning with a bit left from Jersey Lad.

E. M. Voos bought Ideal Beau from J. E. Cushing and he raced in his name, but not in his colors yesterday.

Ben Falk's slate was an addition to the array in the ring at the track.

MONTANA HORSES IN PLENTY.

The prospects about Montana racing at the Anaconda and Butte meetings is keenly expressed in the following telegram received from Ed A. Tipton, who manages the meetings, Tuesday morning:

"ANACONDA, Mont., June 7.—If Chicago owners think of shipping here stop them unless they have good horses. Short distance, low-class sprinters will not do. They are coming in by the hundreds.

"ED A. TIPTON."

AMERICAN EXCHANGE BIG SALE.

The American Horse Exchange sale is on at New York. The material offered is a picked lot of yearlings from the following Kentucky stud farms: Woodburn, Rummey, Hartland, McGrathiana, Dixiana, Larchmont, Melbourne, Dixiana Farm and the Kindergarten studs, the property of A. J. Alexander, Clay & Woodford, Milton Young, W. S. Barnes, B. G. Thomas, J. N. Camden, Sr., S. C. Lyon, T. J. Carron, Dr. J. D. Hunt and "Matt" Simpson.

Among the choice individuals offered are a full brother to Handsome, by Hanover, out of Cinderella, the dam of Hastings and Ferrier, a colt out of Pearl Thorn, Counter Tenor's dam, another from Salara, Toano's dam and one from Emma Hanley, the mother of Buddhist. Then too, there's a half brother to Ben Brush, by Sir Dixon, Mr. Camden, of the Hartland, sends children of The Maid, Morning Glory, Palmetto and Lizzie M to the sale.

Col. W. S. Barnes contributes from Milbourne, the produce from Bonita Bell, Bagpipes and Bamboo. Milt Young's consignment includes a well balanced lot, and some of the best bred youngsters from the establishments of Major B. G. Thomas, Mr. Simpson and Major Carson are included in the offerings.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The impudence of St. Louis comment goes to the end of declaring that Knowles' win of the Kindergarten Stakes was not popular because Mr. Cushing has not raced his horses at St. Louis for over a year.

That turf astrologer, the Cincinnati Enquirer, tells its readers that $7,000 was bet in the Ingalls' Park foreign book last Wednesday on Free Advice. What rot. About $700 is the real figure.

The Jockey Club has adopted a new rule which allows two recalls from the rise of the barrier of the starting machine.

Fred Foster recently went to Latonia and snatched The Planter out of a selling race from Byron McClelland.

Winner—Ch. f, by Candlemas—Perhaps.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won under punishment; second and third hard at it. Hardly was the best. She stood a long drive gamely and is perhaps the best filly at the track. The Cheat ran an honest race. He, too, hung on well in the closing drive. Clay rode Elsie Bramble hard all the way. Her recent hard races told on her. Darechota is a fine looking filly but had little speed. She is nothing like it.

Scratched—Lady Marie, $5.

8814 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $250. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. h, 7, by Runnymede or Pontiac—Girofle.

Post 8 minutes. Start perfect. Won pulling up; second and third driving. Redskin was a lot the best. He will be a hard horse to beat for some time. The old rogue wanted to sulk near the end. He pinned back his ears and tried to bite the rail. Indra ran his race and it was a good one. Irene Woods is rounding to. She will do about her next out.

Scratched—Hollywood, 102; The Deuce, 102; Dejure, 100.

Overweights—Lady Clyde, 5 pounds; Irene Woods, 2.

Time, 24 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:02 1/2.

Winner—B. c, by Deceiver—Ida Walton.

Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won driving and staggering; second and third just as hard at it and just as tired. Trickster tried to run out all the way. The boy rode a good race on him and held him well together in the stretch. Ideal Beau seemed to be running easy at head of the stretch. Both he and Mr. Eastin were short.

Scratched—Raymond F. 113.

Winner—Br. h, 6, by Frontier—Rustic Agnes.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving. Percy was the best and had clear sailing. Gracie C ran a clever race and Glenod a surprising one. Sunny was interfered with early and was badly messed about at all turns. Throw his race out. Doctor G had none of his usual speed. Little Music had a lot but it did him no good. Sullross is getting good.

Scratched—Little Dorritt, 102; Tom Sayre, 104.

Overweights—Little Music, 5 pounds; Doctor G. 3.

Time, 24 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:02, 1:15, 1:21.

Winner—Br. f, by Rossington—Lady Prank.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won hand ridden; the next three were driving and out to the last ounce. Olivia L ran a grand race from where she got off. This is the one her party expected her to run long ago. Jersey Lad had all of his speed and the boy rode him well, although he was a bit overconfident at the head of the stretch. Admetus is not at his best. He runs better on a soft track, too. Kate Fisher is a jade. She had a world of speed to-day. Lillian Wilkes was interfered with a bit on the far turn. Her race was a good one.
